

Chroma

{Chromatic}

Travel to the end of summer's pigment-saturated rainbow and witness a menagerie of prismatic colors.

By Karie L. Frost/Photography by Caesar Lima

Trip the bright fantastic this summer with a color palette that ebbs with a current of fluoro-cool neons and flows with flutter-soft pastels. The endless rainbow of hues—sultry indigo, candy-apple green, translucent coral, bubblegum pink—transcends the usual ROYGBIV spectrum, turning out a pigment paradise that your clients are sure to delight in during summer's hot-hue months.
